Celebrate in style

Your summery celebration
at Platzl Hotels
June to September 2026

The background of the advertisement features two elegant wine glasses filled with a refreshing beverage. The drinks are garnished with fresh watermelon slices, vibrant red strawberries, and bright green mint leaves. The glasses are set against a dark, blurred background, which makes the colors of the fruit and the clarity of the liquid stand out. The overall aesthetic is clean, fresh, and inviting, perfectly complementing the summer theme of the text.
